ANNOUNCEMENT OF SUPPLEMENTAL COMMUNICATIONS (Received After Agenda Distribution)

Pursuant to the Brown "Open Meetings" Act, City Clerk Joan Flynn announced supplemental communication received by her office following distribution of the City Council agenda packet:

A PowerPoint communication received from Ken Small, Police Chief, dated March 19, 2012, entitled Police Department Reorganization and Staffing.

PUBLIC COMMENTS PERTAINING TO STUDY SESSION / CLOSED SESSION ITEMS (3 Minute Time Limit) - None

STUDY SESSION

1. The Police Chief presented and discussed a reorganization plan for the Police Department

Police Chief Ken Small provided a PowerPoint presentation entitled Police Department Reorganization and Staffing, with the following titled slides: City Council Strategic Plan July 2011, (1. Department Organization Chart, 2. Revised Beat Plan Maps, 3. Revised Minimum Staffing Levels, 4. Revised Protocol - Calls for Service), Why Reorganization?, Executive & Administrative Operations Divisions Organization Charts (Sworn - Current, Sworn - Reorg, Location of Vacancies) Uniform Division Organization Chart (Sworn - Current, Sworn-Reorg, and Sworn - Reorg & Location of Vacancies), Investigation Division Organization Chart (Sworn-Current, Sworn-Reorg, Reorg & Location of Vacancies), Overview of Modifications, Modification of Beat Plan, Revised 8 Beat Plan, Revised Minimum Staffing, Friday and Saturday, Comparable Staffing Levels, Southern California/Orange County Beach Cities, Calls for Service, and Questions.

Councilmember Harper and Chief Small discussed Police enforcement in Huntington Harbor, and how Huntington Beach compares to other beach communities with harbor enforcement.

Councilmember Carchio and Chief Small discussed how the summer plan relocates officers from gang and other units into divisions that support events that bring in 13 million plus visitors into the City.

Councilmember Bohr and Chief Small discussed managing expectations from residents, and adjusting to working with less.

Mayor Pro Tem Dwyer and Chief Small discussed salaries, higher property values, mandated staffing for the Fire Department, two-tier and fully-funded pensions.

Councilmember Shaw and Chief Small discussed how the Public Information Officer helps educate the public of Police presence in the community, and enforcement activity in the downtown during the summer.

Mayor Hansen discussed creating a communication plan for the citizens, and changing the ways the City works with staff resources. He cited the example of a physician's assistant prescribing medicine versus seeing a doctor to show how working with less is what the City must consider at this time in order to continue deployment of resources to meet community needs.

Mayor Pro Tem Dwyer stated that the Fire Department's mandated staffing (4-man/vehicle) rule should be at the center of future MOU discussions. Councilmember Boardman voiced concerns about pitting Fire against Police.

Councilmember Harper suggested that the City review public safety plans in other cities such as Santa Ana and Irvine.

RECESS TO CLOSED SESSION

A motion was made by Bohr, second Dwyer to recess to Closed Session. The motion carried by the following roll call vote:

AYES: Shaw, Dwyer, Harper, Hansen, Carchio, Bohr, and Boardman

ADMINISTRATIVE ITEMS

12. Received and Filed City of Huntington Beach City Attorney's Office (CAO) Performance Review

Cathy Standiford with Management Partners Incorporated provided a PowerPoint entitled City of Huntington Beach City Attorney's Office Review, with titled slides: Tonight's Presentation, Background, Project Approach, General Fund Budget per Capita, CAO General Fund Allocations, CAO Budget per Capita, Staffing Levels, Total Staffing Comparison, Attorney Staffing Comparison, Administrative Staff Comparison, Request for Legal Services, Litigation Workload, Customer Service, Areas for Improvement, Recommendations - Customer Service, Recommendations - Performance and Accountability, and Conclusion.

Councilmember Bohr and Ms. Standiford discussed the number of agencies audited by Management Partners (elected City Attorneys vs. appointed), best practices in communication, including returning phone calls and emails, removing the Outlook "Out-of-Office" instant email feature, customer service standards, annual performance evaluations, and what is established in relation to a "second in command" in the office.

City Attorney McGrath discussed recommendations made in past department audits that have been put into place, and what current recommendations could be improved upon now.

Mayor Pro Tem Dwyer and Ms. Standiford discussed outsourcing litigation services and the time reported in the Study to return Requests for Legal Services.

Councilmember Carchio voiced concerns about operational modifications not being implemented had the audit not been performed.

Councilmember Shaw discussed the importance of delegating work, and shared his impression of the positive factors in the report.

Councilmember Boardman discussed her knowledge and involvement in past City Attorney Department audits, questioned the City Attorney's budget for employee training, and whether outsourcing litigation would require a Charter amendment.

Mayor Pro Tem Dwyer and City Attorney McGrath discussed producing a model of how the office should be restructured to improve administrative functions in the City Attorney's Office.

Mayor Hansen and City Attorney McGrath discussed progress in relation to performance evaluations and established performance measures, the Pro Law System, and the challenges which keep two Assistant City Attorneys from operating effectively as a "second-in-command."

Mayor Hansen summarized comments made by Council, and reiterated concerns about annual performance evaluations not being done.

Discussion ensued about the presence of any internal review processes in place within the organization, which City department should be audited next, and whether or not the City has the resources to conduct another departmental audit.

A motion was made by consensus to receive and file City Attorney's Office Performance Review. The motion carried by the following roll call vote:

AYES: Shaw, Harper, Dwyer, Hansen, Carchio, Bohr, and Boardman
NOES: None

COUNCILMEMBER ITEMS

13. Request submitted by Councilmember Carchio approved to direct staff to research and draft an animal protection ordinance that would eliminate the commercial sale and/or resale of dogs and cats in the City

Councilmember Carchio requested that staff play a video produced by the Human Society that educates the public on the deplorable conditions for dogs who are forced to reproduce through "puppy mills." Councilmember Carchio discussed his personal feelings about why the City should not allow any commercial sale and/or resale of dogs and cats in the City.

Councilmember Shaw described buying a physically problematic animal from a retailer and not a responsible breeder as a consumer matter that requires responsible attention. He discussed how people purchase animals on a whim, depending on what they see in commercials or popular movies, and offered support for the proposal to not allow commercial sale of cats and dogs in Huntington Beach.

Mayor Pro Tem Dwyer voiced concerns about existing pet retailers in the City not being informed of the request, and the legal risks in not allowing them to continue the sale of cats and dogs should the proposed Ordinance be crafted and approved.

Councilmember Bohr read an excerpt from a letter submitted by Leg Up Rescue that supports the proposed Ordinance, and provided statistics on the number of cats and dogs euthanized annually in the City. He shared feelings about why the Ordinance should move forward, and thanked Councilmember Carchio for bringing it forward.

Councilmember Boardman voiced concerns about puppy mills and the poor conditions of pet stores in general who sell cats and dogs, and provided support for the proposed Ordinance.

Mayor Hansen voiced concerns about allowing the sale of cats and dogs by responsible breeders, but not a responsible retailer.

Discussion ensued, and City Attorney McGrath attempted to clarify the intent of the proposal and suggested that her office provide Council options on how to proceed. She also stated that she would contact existing retailers to communicate Council's direction to draft an Ordinance that prohibits the commercial sale and/or resale of dogs and cats in retail pet stores in the City.

A motion was made by Carchio, second Shaw to direct staff to research and draft an ordinance that would eliminate the commercial sale and/or resale of dogs and cats in retail pet stores in the City of Huntington Beach and provide said ordinance for City Council consideration. The motion carried by the following roll call vote:

AYES: Shaw, Bohr, Carchio, and Boardman
NOES: Dwyer, and Hansen
OUT OF ROOM: Harper
