CAROL HIGGINS CLARK

SUSPENSE with HUMOR

Thursday, June 2, 2016, Noon

Carol Higgins Clark is the author of 15 best-selling Regan Reilly Mysteries. Her next book in the series, KNOCKED, will be released, January 2017.

The Reilly series features Megan Reilly as a smart, saucy sleuth, no matter where or when and in a variety of situations, throwing her into danger but always with a positive resolution.

When asked how she began her writing career, Higgins Clark goes back to when her mother, Mary Higgins Clark, attempted juggling a full-time job while trying to finish her own second book. The younger Higgins Clark grasped this opportunity to familiarize herself with the process of writing a book and telling tales. Later on, mother and daughter co-authored a bestselling holiday mystery series.

Publishers Weekly

Clark's books are "fast-paced fun, with all the substances of a bubble, and—best of all—nobody gets hurt".
