CASE NUMBER: 10-003693
-------------------------------

DETAILS:

On March 4, 2010 at about 8:00 pm, Huntington Beach detectives arrested David Bryan, a 40 year old male from Anaheim, for coming to Huntington Beach with the intent to have sex with a 13 year old female. Following his arrest, detectives served a search warrant on his residence which resulted in additional evidence related to this crime and child pornography.

David Bryan is a registered sex offender. Due to his prior crimes and the nature of this crime, detectives obtained a no bail hold on him. He was booked at the Huntington Beach city jail for attempted lewd acts with a minor less than 14 years of age, communicating with a minor with intent to commit lewd acts and possession of child pornography.

The victim in this crime was actually an undercover Huntington Beach detective. David Bryan contacted the victim online thinking it was a 13 year old female resident of Huntington Beach that he solicited for sex acts. Specific details of this arrest are not being released due to this being an ongoing undercover enforcement action by the Huntington Beach police department.
